Become a member of Tall Timbers Research Station & Land Conservancy

Tall Timbers relies on the generosity of our donors to help sustain the important ecological research and conservation programs within the organization. Individual membership, donors can make a contribution to the Tall Timbers Land Conservancy. Since its inception in 1961, our Land Conservancy has saved tens of thousands of acres, protecting the Red Hills' beautiful rivers and lakes and our state's biodiversity. Your support helps us continue this vital work.

Help us save the Red Hills!

Become a member of Tall Timbers and make a program-specific donation to our Land Conservancy by calling (850) 893-4153 x 343, or visiting us online at www.talltimbers.org/membership.htm.

Helpful Hint

Donors can make a contribution beyond general membership to help sustain the important ecological research and conservation programs within the organization.

Helpful Hint

A program-specific donation to our Land Conservancy can help us continue this vital work for future generations.

Sights To See in the Greater Red Hills Region

This brochure was made possible, in part, through the generous support of the Cherokee Foundation, Inc., Thomasville, Georgia and the Georgia Power Foundation, Inc.
Welcome to the Red Hills — a fascinating and unique region of golden wiregrass, stately pines, and historic plantations.

The Red Hills Region is home to some of the most beautiful and unique plantations in the South. The region is known for its picturesque landscapes, historic sites, and rich agricultural heritage. Here are some of the highlights:

- Lake Jackson: This lake is one of the most beautiful in the Red Hills, with crystal clear water and abundant wildlife. It is a great spot for fishing, boating, and birdwatching.
- Tallahassee National Forest: This forest is home to some of the most beautiful natural landscapes in the region. It offers hiking, biking, and camping opportunities.
- Lake Talquin: This lake is a popular spot for fishing, boating, and water sports. It is also home to some of the most beautiful wildflowers in the region.
- St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge: This refuge is home to some of the most beautiful wildlife in the Red Hills. It offers hiking, birdwatching, and wildlife viewing opportunities.
- Thomasville Rose Show & Festival: This festival is one of the most popular events in the Red Hills, with over 7,000 rose bushes on display.

The Red Hills Region is also home to some of the most beautiful and historic plantations in the South. These plantations offer a unique glimpse into the history of the region and its people. Here are some of the most famous plantations:

- Piney Plantation: This plantation is one of the most beautiful in the Red Hills, with crystal clear water and abundant wildlife. It is a great spot for fishing, boating, and birdwatching.
- Lake Talquin: This lake is a popular spot for fishing, boating, and water sports. It is also home to some of the most beautiful wildflowers in the region.
- St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge: This refuge is home to some of the most beautiful wildlife in the Red Hills. It offers hiking, birdwatching, and wildlife viewing opportunities.
- Thomasville Rose Show & Festival: This festival is one of the most popular events in the Red Hills, with over 7,000 rose bushes on display.

The Red Hills Region is a great place to visit for those who enjoy nature, history, and culture. Whether you are looking for a relaxing getaway or an adventure-filled vacation, the Red Hills Region has something for everyone.